

Marcia Mann Scholarship

2019

International Dyslexia Association New Hampshire Branch

The International Dyslexia Association, New Hampshire Branch (NHIDA) will award the Marcia Mann Scholarship to a regular education teacher dedicated to improving the lives of children who struggle with reading acquisition.

The Marcia Mann Scholarship was established in 2018 by NHIDA with a generous gift from Ron Yoshimoto in honor of his very special mentor and friend, Marcia Mann. Marcia has been in the field of education and reading for over 50 years. A Speech-Language Pathologist who has first hand knowledge of and experience with dyslexia, she has been president of the New York Branch of IDA and a founding Fellow of the Academy of Orton-Gillingham Practitioners and Educators.

Ron's tireless dedication to educating people worldwide about effective, structured and multisensory literacy instruction, necessary for dyslexic learners and beneficial for all learners, has been inspired by Marcia's example. In honor of Marcia, this scholarship will cover the registration fee for the recipient to attend one of the conferences sponsored by NHIDA this year.

NHIDA's goal is that the scholarship recipient will share materials and information from the conference with colleagues in order to advance the understanding of dyslexia and the importance of appropriate instruction for students who struggle with reading acquisition.

The application deadlines are: August 1, 2019 for the NH conference and September 1, 2019 for the Maine conference.
